We are limiting our retreat to 25 participants. We will reserve your spot on a first-come, first-served basis, when we receive your application and check. After 25 women are registered, we will begin a waiting list. Even if you have attended previous retreats with Paige, please send a completed application with your payment. The information is useful.

Buckhorn offers a variety of rooms and configurations, and a limited number of single rooms. We will attempt to match people's needs with the available facilities. We may not be able to meet everyone's preferences and hope that the retreat philosophy of "Taking what is offered" will allow each of us to practice renunciation and simplicity with grace and acceptance.

Dana

This retreat is offered in the ancient tradition of Dana (Generosity). Your retreat fee covers your room and board at Buckhorn. Paige offers the teachings as her practice of Dana (Generosity). There is no set teaching fee. During the retreat you will have the opportunity to practice Dana with a contribution of support for the ongoing work of the teacher.
